Your action plan

1. Get named in the recommendation answers | high priority

No engine named this business in any of the 32 recommendation answers, and all 32 named at least one competitor. Publish a page that answers the recommendation question directly, in the words a buyer uses, with the business name, category, and city in one sentence near the top so an engine can lift it into an answer.

Evidence: 0 of 32 answers named the business. Glow Med Spa Tacoma was named in 32, Pura Vida Med Spa in 28, Skin Spirit in 24.

2. Build the page Glow Med Spa keeps winning with | high priority

3. Make the domain citable from recommendation answers | high priority

4. Get into the sources the engines already cite | medium priority

5. Answer the injectable question on your own site | medium priority

This sample includes one example action in full. Your report includes the prioritized actions for your business.

How the score is calculated

Score = $100 \times (0.50 \times \text{mention rate} + 0.30 \times \text{citation rate} + 0.20 \times \text{position score})$. Position one receives full credit, with a 0.25 reduction per later position. Fifth place and below receive no position credit. Failed answers are excluded.

Answers change between assessments. This report records the answers received at one point in time.

Answer 1

Business absent

The best med spa for you depends on location and what you need. In the Tacoma area, frequently mentioned options include Pura Vida Med Spa, Glow Med Spa, and Skin Spirit. Pura Vida is often recommended for facials and skin treatments, while larger chains like Skin Spirit offer more locations and standardized injectable pricing.

Answer 2

Business absent

I do not know your city, so here are common characteristics of a good med spa rather than a specific list: a licensed injector with a published bio, transparent pricing, a consultation before treatment, and a plan for follow-up. If you are in the Puget Sound area, chains such as Skin Spirit and independent clinics like Glow Med Spa Tacoma are often mentioned.

Answer 6

Business absent

Rather than rank clinics I cannot verify, here is what separates a good med spa from a weak one: a licensed injector with a published background, transparent pricing, a consultation before any injectable, and a clear aftercare plan. Commonly mentioned Puget Sound options include Skin Spirit and Pura Vida Med Spa. If you tell me your city and treatment, I can be more specific.

Pura Vida Med Spa

Glow Med Spa Tacoma

<https://glowmedspatacoma.com>

Answer 2

Business absent

The best med spa for most people is one that is transparent about who injects, what they use, and what it costs. Those criteria matter more than brand name. In the Puget Sound region, Skin Spirit and Pura Vida Med Spa are frequently mentioned. I would avoid ranking them for you, since the best fit depends on your treatment goals and budget. Start with a consultation and ask to see the injector's credentials.
